DEDICATION

As we of this class struggled through the multitudes of exams and term papers of high school life, we often moved a bit too swiftly to fully appreciate those reliable, dedicated and unselfish sources of knowledge and assistance that helped to bring us to this miracle called graduation.

It is for this reason that we, the staff of the '74 Mountain Echo, pause briefly in our striving for future goals, to offer our sincere thanks to our librarian of many years, Mrs. Irene Winch.

Mrs. Winch, we thank you for your hours of valuable and learned assistance, and for the many kind moments of understanding that you have given us throughout the years. For all of these reasons and a great many more, we would like to say that we appreciate all you have done for us. Therefore we dedicate the 1974 Mountain Echo to you--Mrs. Irene Winch.

And a youth said, Speak to us of Friendship.

And he answered saying:

Your friend is your needs answered.

He is your field which you sow with love and reap with thanksgiving.

And he is your board and your fireside.

For you come to him with your hunger, and you seek him for peace.

When your friend speaks his mind you fear not the "nay" in your own mind, nor do you withhold the "ay."

And when he is silent your heart ceases not to listen to his heart;

For without words, in friendship, all thoughts, all desires, all expectations are born and shared, with joy that is unacclaimed.

When you part from your friend, you grieve not;

For that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence, as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain.

And let there be no purpose in friendship save the deepening of the spirit.

For love that seeks aught but the disclosure of its own mystery is not love but a net cast forth: and only the unprofitable is caught.

And let your best be for your friend.

If he must know the ebb of your tide, let him know its flood also.

For what is your friend that you should seek him with hours to kill?

Seek him always with hours to live.

For it is his to fill your need, but not your emptiness.

And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, and sharing of pleasures.

For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed.

1973 was our first season for a girls interscholastic soccer team. Our coach was Miss Pritchard and, Miss Galvin was our statistician. We played two home games and two away games. Although our team didn't have a very successful season, at least we had a really good time and hope to do better next year.
